

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Divinity

Centre for the Study of World Christianity Seminars

Tuesdays 4.10 pm, Martin Hall, New College & online (unless otherwise stated)

For Zoom details, contact Emma.WildWood@ed.ac.uk

10th September.

Welcome and Five-minute thesis with 2nd year PhD Students: Hannah Nation and Alison Zilversmit. Reception to meet new students.

11th September (Wednesday) Assembly Hall 2pm. Inaugural Lecture.

A Philosophy of Love: Nietzsche, Lou Salomé and William James Prof Jeremy Carrette.

19th September (Thursday).

Religion and Identity Whole School seminar with Drs James Eglinton, Paul Fuller, Philippa Townsend and Lois Wilson-McFarland.

24th September. Book Launch: Joint seminar with Church History.

Dr Pedro Feitoza, Propagandists of the Book: Protestant Missions, Christian Literacy, and the Making of Brazilian Evangelicalism with panellists Dr Timo Schaefer (History), Dr Maya Mayblin (Anthropology) and Alison Zilversmit (Divinity).

Propagandists of the Book examines the development of Brazilian Protestantism through an analysis of the production and circulation of evangelical texts and considers the broad impact of evangelicalism on literacy and culture in Brazil between 1860-1930.

8th October.

Zihao He, Killing for the Great Peace: Analysing the Role of Theology in the Violence of the Taiping Rebellion
David Lewis, Ecot theology and Disenchantment: Maathai, Chryssavgis, and Johnsen on Restoring Sacramentality

22nd October.

Dr Ming Shun Chiang, Trinity Theological College, Singapore: The Cross and the Whip: Christianity and Religious Violence in the 19th Century

5th November.

Whole School seminar: Gunning Lecture Discussion for the UoE Decolonised Transformation Project. More information later.

19th November.

Joint seminar with Scottish Network of Religion and Literature.

Prof Adriaan van Klinken, Leeds University. Contemporary Nigerian Literature as African Religion and World Christianity